The remuneration of auditors on the Panel of auditors and audit fees for those societies audited by the Departmental auditors shall be fixed by the Registrar.

It shall be ensured that the appointed Auditor be served with the notice of Annual General Body Meeting and he shall be entitled to attend the said meeting. It is mandatory on the part of the auditors to abide with all the terms and conditions prescribed in the Annexure annexed to the application form and any deviation in the said conditions shall be viewed seriously which may even amounts to expelling from the Panel of Auditors.

The Departmental Auditors shall be appointed well in advance in consultation with the Asstt. Registrar of Coop. Societies of the respective jurisdiction inorder to avoid any delay in causing the Statutory Audit.

It shall also be ensured that the Auditor empanelled on Panel of Auditors is not a defaulter member of a particular society, whenever he/she is appointed as Statutory Auditor of the society.

In addition to the above the Urban Coop. Banks in the State shall also scrupulsouly follow the additional guidelines if any issued by RBI for appointment of Statutory Auditor.

It is the principle duty of the Statutory Auditor to submit detailed report in the matter of financial irregularities, mismanagement, misappropriation & frauds etc. if any, involving funds of the Coop. Bank/Coop. Societies observed during the course of Audit after fixing the responsibility against the concern and file FIR with the Police Authorities and submitt Special Report to that effect before the Registrar to take recourse of action as provided under Section 82 of Goa Coop. Societies Act, 2001.

The Auditor concern shall prepare Audit Report in triplicate and submit one copy to the concerned Cooperative society/Bank and two copies of the same to the concern office of the Asstt. Registrar of Coop. Societies of the respective jurisdiction.

The Auditors enlisted on the Panel are required to follow all the Circulars/Guidelines, Notification, Orders issued by the Registrar and other Regulatory Authorities namely, Reserve Bank of India, NABARD etc. from time to time . They shall also offer the comments on the Schemes/grants availed by the Coop. Societies /Banks with their notable remarks.

The provision of Sub-section (8) of Section 75 of the Goa Cooperative Societies Act 2001 shall be applicable to all the Auditors if they are found responsible for willfull omission or failure to report to the Registrar of mismanagement, mis-appropriation of societies funds or violation of any provision of the Act.

This Order shall come into force with immediate effect and shall supersede all the previous Orders/Addendums issued in the matter.

(Narayan Sawant)
Registrar of Cooperative
Societies & Ex-officio
Jt. Secretary to Govt. of Goa

To,
The concerned Chartered Accountant/Certified Auditor/ Cooperative/ Special/Sr./
Jr. Auditor.
